28.1 Where there is a grievance or dispute between:

- (i) A member and another member; or
- (ii) A member and the Association; or
- (iii) Non-members who receive services from the Association, and the Association.

The Association must adhere to and document their adherence with the Disputes and Mediation process.

28.2 If the parties to a dispute are unable to resolve the dispute between themselves within fourteen (14) days after the dispute has come to the attention of each party, any party to the dispute may start the grievance procedure by giving written notice to the Honorary Secretary of:

- (i) the parties to the dispute; and
- (ii) the matters that are the subject of the dispute.

28.3 Within twenty-eight (28) days after the Honorary Secretary is given the notice, an Executive Meeting must be convened to consider and determine the dispute.

28.4 At least seven (7) days before the Executive Meeting, the Honorary Secretary must give each party to the dispute written notice by either post or email stating:

- (i) when and where the Executive Committee meeting is to be held
- (ii) that the party, and/or the party's representative, may attend the meeting and will be given a reasonable opportunity to make written and/or oral submissions to the committee about the dispute.

28.5 If any party to the dispute gives written notice to the Honorary Secretary stating that the party does not agree to the dispute being determined by the Executive Committee; and as such requests the appointment of a mediator, the Executive Committee must not determine the dispute.

28.6 At the Executive Meeting at which a dispute is to be considered and determined, the committee must:

- (i) give each party to the dispute, or the party's representative, a reasonable opportunity to make written and/or oral submissions to the committee about the dispute; and
- (ii) give due consideration to any submissions so made; and
- (iii) determine the dispute.

28.7 The Executive Committee must give each party to the dispute written notice by either post or email of the Executive Committee's determination, and the reasons for the determination, within seven (7) days after the committee meeting at which the determination is made.

28.7.1 A party to the dispute may, within fourteen (14) days after receiving notice of the Executive Committee's determination, give written notice by either post or email to the Honorary Secretary requesting the appointment of a mediator.

28.7.2 If notice is given, each party to the dispute is a party to the mediation.

28.8 The mediator is appointed by agreement between both parties to the dispute

28.8.1 The person appointed as mediator may be a member or former member of the Association, but must not:

- (i) have a personal interest in the matter that is the subject of the mediation; or
- (ii) be biased in favour of or against any party to the mediation.

28.8.2 The parties to the mediation must attempt in good faith to settle the matter that is the subject of the mediation.

28.8.3 Each party to the mediation must give the mediator a written statement of the issues that need to be considered at the mediation at least five (5) days before the mediation takes place.

28.8.4 In conducting the mediation, the mediator must:

- (i) give each party to the mediation every opportunity to be heard; and
- (ii) allow each party to the mediation to give due consideration to any written statement given by another party; and
- (iii) ensure that natural justice is given to the parties to the mediation throughout the mediation process.

28.8.5 The mediation must be confidential, and any information given at the mediation cannot be used in any other proceedings that take place in relation to the matter that is the subject of the mediation.

28.8.6 The costs of the mediation are to be paid by the party or parties to the mediation that requested the appointment of the mediator.

28.9 The information gathered by the Disputes and Mediation Process remains confidential and must be destroyed if the issue is resolved.

28.10 If the Disputes and Mediation Process does not result in the grievance or dispute being resolved, the parties may seek to resolve the grievance or dispute in accordance with the Associations Incorporation Regulations 2016 (Model Rules) or otherwise at law.

29.0 COMMON SEAL

The Association may have a Common Seal.

29.1 The Honorary Secretary shall have custody of the Common Seal of the Association.
